The trailer is available at <https://youtu.be/QDARKbYLhYE> and on the website www.hazelmovie.com.

“It’s a beautiful, true story of the courage and resilience, so powerfully embodied in this heroic young girl,” says Bielinski, whose company Canticle Productions has built its brand around telling true stories of the Great Plains. ‘I’m thrilled to bring Dan & Samuel Goldwyn Films together to collectively honor Hazel’s legacy’, added executive producer Savante.

Set in rural North Dakota in 1920, Hazel’s Heart follows a heroic 16 year-old girl who fights to keep her two younger siblings alive in a fierce, white-out blizzard, while her father leads a desperate rescue mission during twenty-five hours of subzero temperatures.

The film will be released December 23rd on Apple TV, Amazon, Google Play/YouTube Movies, Fandango-At-Home, Versant, Vubiquity, and DirecTV/AT&T.

Pre-order is available on Apple TV: <https://bit.ly/HazelsHeartApple>

The film will also have an exclusive streaming window on Angel Studios beginning December 18th.

Executive Producer Savante negotiated the deal with Leni Sperry-Fromm and Ben Feingold of Samuel Goldwyn Films.
